

minibeasts in the mulch

autumn

A leafy carpet provides our woodland invertebrates with plenty of places to shelter and hide.

Find a good spot and carefully look under the leaves.

If you find fallen leaves that have rolled up, carefully unroll the leaf, look inside and then gently place back on the ground.

What will you find?

