

woodland snakes and autumn flowers

autumn

Collect some fallen leaves of different colours.

Lay them in a line to create a woodland snake, slithering between the trees, through holes and over logs (you may have to leaf stitch these!)

Look for leaves of different colours to create an autumn flower.

Don't forget to turn the leaves over – you'll often find a different shade or colour!

learning through the seasons